DATED : 25TH AUGUST, 2006.

P.C.:-

1. The learned counsel for the parties state that the parties have amicably settled the dispute involved in the first appeal.

2. It appears that this matter was referred to the Lok Adalat by this court by order dated 27/9/2005. It appears that the Lok Adalat suggested that since the appeal was restricted to the extent of Rs.2,50,000/-, the parties should arrive at some figure amicably. It appears that so far as the instant first appeal is concerned, since the claim was restricted to Rs.2,50,000/-, the parties have settled the claim at Rs.1,25,000/-. Mr. Datar, the learned counsel appearing for the appellants states that the appellants have handed over a cheque in the sum of Rs.1,25,000/- to him. The said cheque is in the name of Registrar of this Court. He states that he shall deposit the same within one week from today. On such deposit being made, the respondents will be at liberty to withdraw the said amount of Rs.1,25,000/-.

3. In view of this, the first appeal is disposed of. Needless to say that all connected civil applications shall also stand disposed of.
